USB Powered 2.0 Speaker

Introducing FINGERS DeskSound 2.0 USB Speaker - The newest addition to your desk that promises not to take up much space but delivers an audio experience that defies its size. With its sleek and modern design, DeskSound 2.0 blends seamlessly into any setup while making sure you never compromise on sound quality.

With DeskSound 2.0, you're not just getting a speaker; you're getting an upgrade to your everyday audio experience. It's time to make your desk a place of great sound and style.

Plug in, turn up the volume, and let DeskSound 2.0 transform the way you listen.

Your All-in-One Audio Sidekick

Whether you're jamming to your favourite tunes, diving into the immersive world of gaming, binge-watching the latest series, in a meeting or attending an online webinar, FINGERS DeskSound 2.0 Speaker has got you covered. It's versatile and delivers an all-new level of world-class audio and energetic bass, making it an unforgettable experience.

Punches above its weight

Don't let its small size fool you. The DeskSound 2.0 delivers a punchy bass that you can feel, and crystal-clear highs that will have you hearing your favourite tracks in a whole new light.

Fits Anywhere. Rocks Everywhere.

No more cluttered desks. Its compact form fits snugly into any nook or cranny whether at home or in the office, ensuring your workspace remains tidy and stylish without sacrificing sound.

Good to Go in Seconds

No complicated setups here. Just plug it in, and you're ready to rock. This 2.0 Speaker is designed for those who want great sound without the hassle. Complete with an in-line volume controller that keeps things simple, this USB speaker makes it easy to dial the volume up or down as and when required.
